BARRAGA: NEWS FROM THE 11TH DISTRICT

IT'S AWARD SEASON! NOMINATE SOMEONE YOU KNOW FOR THE 2015 SENIOR CITIZEN OF THE YEAR AWARD

Suffolk County Legislator Tom Barraga (R-West Islip) is pleased to announce that the Suffolk County Office of the Aging and the Suffolk County Senior Citizens Advisory Board are accepting nominations for the Senior Citizen of the Year Award.

To qualify the candidate must be someone 60 years of age or older who resides in the 11th Legislative District and in some way has enhanced the lives of older residents in Suffolk County. They may be an advocate, role model, leader or volunteer in one of our local communities.

Please submit their name, address and phone number with a brief explanation of why you feel they should be recognized for this award to Legislator Barraga's office located at 187 Sunrise Highway, Suite C, West Islip, NY 11795 by February 10th.

The senior citizen selected from District 11 will be recognized by Legislator Barraga and their name will then be submitted for the honor of 2015 Senior Citizen of the Year Award for all of Suffolk County.

If chosen, this award will be presented at the Senior Celebration Luncheon in May.

For more information please contact Legislator Barraga's office at 631-854-4100 or susan.malone@suffolkcountyny.gov.
